Robbers.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Springfield, Ill., June 18.—Two masked men who early today robbed the express car on the "Diamond Special," the Illinois Central's fast train between St. Louis and Chicago, were sought in this city today. After being interrupted in their work by police, the bandits forced the engineer to run past the blue coats, and when a later trial with dynamite forced the safe, they ran the engine into Springfield and escaped.

The safe, according to the local express agent, contained not more than $500. In their attempts to get this sum the robbers threatened the engine crew with death, overpowered the express messenger, fired promiscuously at passengers, disarmed one detective and exchanged shots with another. No one was hurt so far as is known.

The "hotpup" took place ten miles south of Springfield. A danger signal brought the train to a stop and the engineers were promptly "covered" with revolvers. After firing a few shots along the sides of the coaches, they ordered the engineer to uncouple the express car from the train and proceed two miles down the track.

The engineer obeyed, and five charges of dynamite, which could be plainly heard by the passengers, were fired in an ineffectual attempt to get at the contents of the safe in the express car.

Covered by revolvers in the hands of one of the bandits the engineer, fireman, and two express messengers were forced to stand nearby and watch the attempts of the other bandit to force the strong box.

Springfield, Ill., June 18.—Two masked bandits held up the Illinois Central night Diamond Special en route to Chicago from St. Louis ten miles south of here shortly after midnight last night, and fought a pitched battle with a posse of deputy sheriffs and city policemen from Springfield, who came upon them while dynamiting the safe in the express car and escaped, after themselves running the engine to a point near the city limits of Springfield. It is not yet known whether the robbers succeeded in securing $25,000 carried in the safe of the express car.

In addition to fighting a pitched battle with the officers the bandits captured one policeman and one newspaper reporter and lined them beside the express car with the messengers and curious passengers who (Continued on page 8, col. 3.)

Will Reconsider the Plans For Portion of Proposed New Subway Improvement

With the matter of the First street subway still unsettled engineers representing the Pennsylvania and B. & O. railroads and the city of Newark adjourned about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, local city officials having the promise of the railroad representatives that they would consider their plans for this portion of the improvement. The report will probably be made to the city engineers, Messrs. Maetzel & Simpson in Pittsburgh next week.

In the story of the engineers' deliberations, printed in Tuesday's edition of the Advocate, it was stated that the city's portion of the expense would amount to about $300,000.

According to the statements of those interested, the expense will not reach this amount. The total cost of the improvement will be a trifle more than a million dollars.

The city will participate in about $800,000 of this amount, paying 35 per cent of the latter sum or approximately $280,000. The balance of the cost will be shared jointly by the Pennsylvania and B. & O., each road paying individually for that part of the work which is regarded as an improvement over present conditions.

These individual improvements consist of new freight terminals for both roads. The plans under consideration include the removal of the B. & O. freight terminal to a point near Clinton street, where team tracks and freight sheds will be provided.

The Pennsylvania company proposes to move its freight depot to a point between Fourth and Sixth streets in the present "red light" district. This will necessitate the purchase of a large tract of land in this locality.

The First street subway which caused the discussion Tuesday will be more than 200 feet long if the present plans are used. The railroads propose to swing the Shawnee track fifty or sixty feet to the south. It is this feature to which the city objects, because the railroads have included this improvement in the joint work to be participated in by all parties.

City Solicitor Jones and Engineers Maetzel & Simpson objected strongly to this added expense. "We have no objections to your plan of placing the tracks and lengthening the subway," said Solicitor Jones, "but we do not think the city should be expected to help pay for the improvement when the railroads are seeking to improve their own conditions. We think we have done our share when we consent to the extra long tunnel."

Before the final adjournment the entire party consisting of engineers and city officials numbering twenty or more, visited the point under discussion and viewed the actual grounds.

Engineers Dittier and Somerville, representing the railroads agreed to take this matter up with the officials and be ready to make a report to Messrs. Maetzel & Simpson at Pittsburgh a week from Friday.

COAL STRIKE TESTIMONY IS NEARING END

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Charleston, W. Va., June 18.—The senate committee investigating the West Virginia coal strike today rushed along the examination of witnesses in order to dispose of as many of those to be heard as possible before leaving for Washington tonight. The coal operators who are presenting their side of the case, had on hand a score or more of witnesses whose testimony was brief and who they wished to examine in Charleston.

The attitude of Senator Martine of New Jersey, who yesterday clashed with Quinn Morton, one of the operators on Point Creek, and the attorney for the operators, became a matter of concern today.

The operators' lawyers declare that Senator Martine has been unfair in his examination of witnesses and have been prejudiced in his attitude toward the operators. They said that when the committee reaches Washington they will put into the record evidence of oral and written statements by Senator Martine to show that he has "prejudged the case." The other members of the committee will take up this question among themselves and will probably place it before the full senate committee on education and labor.

Columbus Attorney Ends His Life By Suiciding Today in Franklin Park

Columbus, O., June 18.—Charles E. Morris, attorney and real estate dealer, committed suicide in Franklin park today by shooting himself through the head with a revolver.

The shooting took place about 100 yards east of the home of James Underwood, superintendent of the park and within 150 feet of the spot where, on May 13, 1912, Alvin E. Zollinger was shot, resulting in the arrest, trial and acquittal of Miss Cecelia Farley for his alleged murder.

Morris was walking along through the park when he ended his life. When park attaches, who were working near, heard the shot and rushed to his side, he was dead. The revolver, gripped in his left hand, was still smoking. Beside his body was found one of Morris' business cards on which was written "take me home, not to the morgue, 443 Morrison avenue."

Morris had served a term in the penitentiary. He formerly lived in Springfield and there when an official of the Building and Loan association was convicted of embezzling funds. Following this he was disbarred by the Clark County Bar association. Within the last two years he was reinstated as an attorney.

Morris is survived by his wife and one son. He has been in poor health for several years.

CINCINNATI ICE WAGON DRIVERS OUT ON STRIKE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, O., June 18.—No disorder and as yet little inconvenience has marked the strike of four hundred ice wagon drivers, which was formally called this morning. Enough of the smaller delivery companies appear to have signed the demands of the men to permit the delivery of ice to hospitals, hotels and cafes, and owing to the forewarning given yesterday it probably will be twenty-four hours before Cincinnati begins to feel the lack of ice.

ONE KILLED AND TWELVE INJURED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Kalamazoo, Mich., June 18.—One person was killed and twelve others were seriously injured, three of whom it is believed will die, when a north bound Lake Shore passenger train collided head-on with a work train a mile north of this city this forenoon. Four of the injured are from Cleveland and it is said all of them will recover. A misunderstanding of orders is blamed for the wreck.

AFFIDAVIT IS QUASHED BY THE JUSTICE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Toledo, O., June 18.—On the two grounds that it was not sufficiently specific and that Ohio laws provide no penalty for the alleged offense, affidavits for the arrest of John A. O'Dwyer, chief deputy of the Toledo election board, charged with soliciting a voter within the 100-foot limit of an election booth for Walter F. Brown for delegate to the constitutional convention in 1911 was quashed by Judge Goshue of the city justice court this morning. Counsel for the prosecution served notice that a new affidavit remedying the defects in the affidavit quashed will be filed.

Cox, former politician and financier was placed on trial in the Common Pleas court here today charged with having misapplied the funds of the defunct Cincinnati Trust Co. to the extent of $115,000. It is alleged in the indictment that Cox loaned this amount to the Ford and Johnson Chair Co. after that concern is alleged to have become insolvent.

SENATE PROBERS RESUME

Work on the Anti-Free
Sugar Fight of Alleged Lobbyists

RECORDS FILED TODAY

With Letters and Telegrams from Beet Sugar Headquarters—New Turn of Investigation is Pronounced Sensational.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 18.—More letters and telegrams from the private files of the men at the head of the anti-free sugar fight began going in the record of the senate lobby investigation committee when it resumed work today. From the large numbers of letters and telegrams which the committee has summarily subpoenaed from beet sugar headquarters only a small portion had been read into the record when the committee adjourned last night.

Seventy odd copies introduced referred to a wide spread campaign headed by Clarence C. Hamlin, of Colorado Springs, to gain publicity for the beet sugar arguments through newspapers, news agencies and with the assistance of great railroads and agricultural colleges.

Senators declared the newest turn of the investigation was the most sensational development yet.

Many men of national prominence mentioned in the correspondence, undoubtedly will be summoned to testify and from a plain investigation of the interests from senators themselves, the tariff bill inquiry now promises to break out into an inquiry into all the influences which are alleged to have been brought for and against it for many years.

Principals in Fight Over $126,000,000 of Stock

R. S. LOVETT,
Chairman of Union Pacific Board.

Attorney General McReynolds and Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the board of the Union Pacific, have locked horns over the disposition of the $126,000,000 of Southern Pacific stock which the Union Pacific owns. They appeared in St. Paul the other day before the United States court. The attorney general said that it was time for the Union Pacific to dispose of the stock.

The United States Supreme court ordered the Union Pacific to sell the stock by July 1. So far none has been sold, and the attorney general doubted if Chairman Lovett intended to sell. When a suggestion was made that the Union Pacific be permitted to trade $18,000,000 of the Southern Pacific stock for $12,000,000 of Baltimore and Ohio held by the Pennsylvania road, the attorney general tentatively agreed.

Motorcycle Collides With a Buggy and Rider May Lose Left Leg as Result

Dense fog which covered the lowlands east of the city Tuesday night was the cause of the serious injury of Stanton Hupp, 19, a motorcyclist, and Howard Boylan, 20, a farmer living near Hanover, when Hupp's machine collided with the Boylan buggy just north of Stadden's Bridge, east of the city. Hupp suffered a double compound fracture of the left leg between the knee and the ankle while Boylan received three serious scalp wounds besides being bruised about the head and body. His right arm was also badly bruised and lacerated.

The accident occurred about 10 o'clock. Hupp states that he was traveling at a good rate of speed when the buggy occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Boylan suddenly loomed up in front of him.

"It seemed not more than fifteen feet away," said Hupp. "I shut off the power and attempted to swerve around the vehicle but failed to clear the wheels. My leg struck the hub of the rear wheel and I was thrown into the ditch."

The force of the collision hurled Boylan and his wife from the buggy and Hupp's companion on the motorcycle, Harry Scott of Hanover, was thrown into the ditch. Mrs. Boylan and Scott were uninjured. Mr. Boylan lay stunned along the road where he fell, bleeding profusely from wounds about the head.

Hupp, the most seriously injured, lay with his head partly in the ditch at the roadside and he was groaning from pain caused by his shattered leg. Not five minutes after the accident, Dr. Carl Evans, with a party of friends, approached the spot in the doctor's automobile. He rendered first aid the best he could without instruments.

A hurry call was sent for the Bazler & Bradley ambulance and the injured men were removed to the Sanitarium. Dr. Evans dressed their injuries. It was found that both bones in Hupp's left leg were broken in two places, the flesh being punctured twice by the jagged ends of the bones.

The physician and the Sanitarium attendants state that every effort is being made to save the young man's leg, though the outcome of the injury is still in doubt. Aside from the fractured leg, Hupp suffered no injuries.

Boylan will probably be able to leave the institution Thursday or Friday as he suffered no broken bones.

It is regarded as miraculous that Scott, who was on the machine with Hupp, escaped uninjured. He did not receive a scratch, though he was thrown to the roadside with considerable force.

Gettysburg, Pa., June 18.—Following the news that President Wilson would not be present at the celebration of the battle anniversary here in July, semi-official announcement was made today that former President Taft would preside over the great gathering and deliver the principal oration on July 4, the closing day of the anniversary.

Steps have been taken to gather as many as possible of the Gettysburg woman who years ago sang patriotic songs as Buford's Cavalry galloped through in preparation for the fight of the first day.

GOVERNOR COX ADDRESSES THE OLD VETERANS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington Court House, June 18.—This morning marked the formal opening of the forty-seventh annual encampment of the Ohio department of the G. A. R. The city is gallantly decorated in honor of the occasion and business is practically at a standstill, every one joining in making this the most successful reunion of the veterans ever held.

Former United States Senator J. B. Foraker this morning wired the encampment committee that he would be unable to attend, his physician having forbidden his coming because of illness. He was to have spoken three times. Governor Cox arrived from Columbus at 10 o'clock by automobile and was warmly greeted.

General Isaac R. Sherwood and General J. Warren Keifer, both of whom are present, are the only living Ohio civil war generals who were mustered as generals. General Sherwood is the only Union soldier now serving in the national house of representatives. There are six Confederate soldiers in the house.

No opposition is expected to the election of Judge W. R. Warnock of Urbana, as department commander, succeeding Commander Charles W. Blodgett of Cincinnati. There are three candidates for department president of the Woman's Relief Corps; Mrs. Sadie D. Chapman of Ironton, Janet Mann of Ashland and Mrs. Emogene Marshall of Sandusky.

Watha was expected in Newark on Wednesday, and was to report to Attorney Flory on arrival. The latter had agreed to endeavor to procure a position for him at once. Watha had not arrived here up to a late hour. He is probably visiting friends in Columbus.

Carl Myers of Clay Lick Drowns in Licking River While Learning to Swim

Inexperienced in swimming and his desire to learn this valuable art, resulted in the death by drowning of Carl Myers, 18, son of Jesse Myers, Ohio Electric station agent at Hanover, Tuesday evening about 6:30 o'clock in the Licking river near Clay Lick.

Myers accidentally stepped into a deep hole near the railroad bridge at Clay Lick and before assistance could be secured, his life was sacrificed.

Volunteers searched for more than four hours in an effort to recover the body before Alva Brumm succeeded in locating it after diving innumerable times. This was about 10 o'clock. Bazler & Bradley's ambulance was summoned and the body was brought to Newark, prepared for burial and returned to the Hanover home of the grief-stricken parents.

Specialist.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Minneapolis, Minn., June 18.—In fifteen sectional meetings the second day of the sixty-fourth annual convention of the American Medical Association opened today on the University of Minnesota campus, various subjects were discussed.

That cancer of the stomach is a curable disease was the declaration of Dr. Wm D. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn.

"A favorable diagnosis can be established by simple methods," he asserted, "a history of gastric disturbance precedes the cancer in a large number, if not the majority of cases. Operations of the stomach should begin as an exploration. Modern involvement of the pancreas does not necessarily preclude operations; palliative operations have a field of usefulness."

Dr. Mayo gave a review of statistics of signs and symptoms observed in 1000 patients operated on for cancer of the stomach.

Radium as a physical agency was discussed in a paper by Dr. Howard A. Kelly of Baltimore, Md. Its action, he said, is local and it is destined to be a potent aid in the treatment of gynecology. He asserted that radium will cure many cases of local recurrence which are difficult to treat by many of the customary surgical methods.

Its importance in the treatment of fibroid tumors is just beginning to be recognized. It checks hemorrhages and in some cases materially decreases the size of the growths. In pelvic inflammatory diseases its use is very helpful, but this, he said, is still a new field.

Lantern slides were used by Dr. J. A. Stucky, of Lexington, Ky., to illustrate a paper on trachoma among the mountaineers of eastern Kentucky. The increase of this disease in the last few years among the Anglo-Saxons of these mountains led Dr. Stucky to make a trip of observation through five counties on mule back. He described unmistakable evidence of the infectious and destructive of the disease. He gave the delegates what he considered a solution of the problem of the eradication of the malady.

Failures of Cities.

(By Chalmers L. Paneoast)
The failure of any city is usually because of the bigotry and short-sightedness of the antagonists of improvements.

Every man who owns real estate in Newark will be benefited by the Present Forward Movement. And if every real estate owner would assert himself in Boosting Newark, this city would experience an active period of improvement and progressiveness.

ORGANIZER FOR

OPEN CAMPAIGNFormer Newspaper Man to Establish
Office For Big Lodge Here—
Officers Prominent.

Mr. Earl B. Huffman, of Canton, state organizer of Ohio for the Order of Reindeer, is in Newark to establish what is believed may be one of the strongest lodges in the state. Mr. Huffman is a former Columbus newspaper man with a considerable acquaintance here.

The Order of Reindeer is one of the largest and most rapidly growing of the comparatively new fraternal and beneficial organizations. Originally a local lodge formed in Kentucky, the order has rapidly spread throughout the Central and Eastern states. Ohio is now being thoroughly organized by a crew of men under direction of the supreme organizer, Hon. John C. Harmony, former newspaper editor, and an educator of no little renown.

Mr. Huffman was former editor of the News-Democrat, now the Daily News of Canton, and in that capacity became widely known throughout the state. The organization which has chosen him as supreme organizer is said to largely reflect the character of the influential men at its head. Stephen C. Miller, a prominent Akron lawyer, is supreme president of the order.

Mr. Huffman has established personal headquarters here and expects to open a downtown office within a few days. He declares he has already been assured a membership here that will compare favorably with that of 1,500 in Canton, 1,100 in Akron, 900 in Cambridge, and corresponding memberships in other Ohio cities.

ON WATER WAGON FOR LIFE

The Splendid Philosophy of a Former Hard Drinker
Who Was Neal-Cured Fifteen Months Ago.

Fifteen months ago a splendid business man of Clyde left the Cleveland Neal Institute, voicing his appreciation of the Neal Treatment, which had taken from him all the old desire which made him a slave to liquor.

"I used to think I was a good fellow," is the way this Ohioan wrote to Dr. A. J. McNamara. "But now I see what a fool I was. I have 'woken up' and taken a tumble to myself. Not a drop of liquor has passed my lips since I left the Neal Institute over 15 months ago. Never again the old way for me! I'm on the water wagon for life. Any time I get the chance I talk Neal Treatment, because I wish to make others see it as I do. I often think of you and your competent assistants and how pleasant you all made my stay in your institution."

The same splendid treatment is accorded patients at the Columbus Neal Institute, where Dr. George R. Bissell is in charge.

Victims of the drink habit are suffering from alcoholic poison. It is this poison which causes the craving—that feeling which the world calls liquor appetite. The Neal Treatment will, in three days, knock out the poison and change the craving into disgust for everything alcoholic.

The Neal Treatment is a physically harmless vegetable remedy, which is taken internally, with no dangerous hypodermic injections.

There is no publicity. Names are never revealed. Your own investigation is not only invited, but urged. Call in person or address for booklet.

Suffered Twenty One Years—
Finally Found Relief

Having suffered for twenty-one years, with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. The physicians called it "Mother's Pain" and injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new man. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root. I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours,

MRS. JOSEPH CONSTANCE,
Avoyelles Par., Marksville, La.

Personally appeared before me, this 15th day of July, 1911, Mrs. Joseph Constance, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

Fred C. Boyer, the popular Second street barber, is spending a couple of weeks at one of the famous cottages, at Buckeye Lake. That is, Fred intended to spend a couple of weeks, but after what happened last night, he says he is going to stay there forever. Fred hadn't caught a fish for so long, he had become discouraged, but last night he landed what is claimed to be the largest bass ever pulled out of the lake. The fish was weighed on Hooker's scale, which registered exactly 11½ pounds. Fred wanted to have the fish mounted as an enduring monument to his piscatorial skill, but finally consented to have it served at a big dinner to a number of his friends today.

WHO IS RIGHT?
WHO SHOULD PAY
THIS LITTLE SUM?

On April 3 a stranger claiming to be a Dayton flood sufferer entered the Advocate office and related a tale of woe, ending with an appeal for help in getting to Wheeling where he claimed to have relatives.

The man had had a drink or two but he said he had taken a little whiskey to ward off a cold. Instead of giving him the cash he was handed a check for the exact amount of the fare to Wheeling, and the check was made payable to Frank C. Bartholomew, B. & O. agent. Then the fellow was invited out to dinner and he was profuse in expressing appreciation for the assistance rendered. Mr. Bartholomew was advised by phone of the transaction and was asked to give the bearer of the check a ticket to Wheeling. It now develops that the man didn't buy a ticket with the check but visited a south side saloon where the bartender, touched by his appeal, accepted the check and gave him some liquor.

The bank of course refused to pay the check without Mr. Bartholomew's signature, and the B. & O. agent naturally declined to endorse the check. The saloon man today presented the check to the man who had issued it and the latter declined to honor the check.

The alleged flood sufferer is gone and has no doubt forgotten the incident. The man who accepted the check and gave him some liquor, sure he shouldn't pay it because he took every precaution against the very thing that happened. Who is right? Who should lose?

BELIEVE BOYS FIRED THE SHED WHILE AT PLAY

A fire which is believed to have been started by boys with matches, destroyed a shed and damaged a barn in the rear of Patrick Rogers' grocery store, 422 Indiana street on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. When the fire was discovered, the flames were leaping up from the roof of a small structure immediately south of the barn. Two lads were seen coming from the shed a few minutes before. According to the statements of several people, one of the boys was heard to say, "Let's go over to the furniture factory and start a fire."

A telephone message to the fire department brought the East Newark company and the ladder truck from headquarters. It required a half hour's work to extinguish the flames. Fire Chief Bausch made an investigation as to the cause of the blaze and located the two lads who were said to have left the shed before its discovery.

They denied any connection with the fire's origin. A careful investigation was made in the vicinity of the furniture factory but no indication of any fire was found.

The shed where the fire originated was completely destroyed, another to the south was badly damaged and about one-third of the large barn was burned away. The loss will amount to several hundred dollars.

NO FIRE WORKS ON THE FOURTH

Despite the fact that a city ordinance passed four or five years ago has been rigidly enforced each Fourth of July, inquiries are being made every day of the mayor's office if fire-works will be allowed on the nation's birthday anniversary.

Mayor Swartz announced Wednesday morning that there would be no deviation from the rule which has been followed in the past five years.

The city ordinance prohibits every form of explosive used as a pyrotechnic display or noise maker. The only exception made to this is when the city council adopts a resolution extending permission for displays made in celebration of some special occasion. Even in this case, the fireworks must be discharged under the supervision of the safety director.

Before his death he shot a deputy. Mrs. Erke, who is 50 years old, is in a serious condition.

OPERATION MAY MAKE GOOD BOY OF YOUNGSTERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Philadelphia, June 18.—An operation which the surgeons declare will make a good boy of Claire Jamison, was performed yesterday at the Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital when a bone about two inches long and one inch wide was removed from the base of the skull. Claire was a good little boy when he first went to school. The second year he was not quite so good and since he has been a terror to teachers and parents. The operation disclosed the fact that a bone pressing on the brain was probably the cause of change in his deportment.

JOSEPH R. MOSER RISKS SAFETY TO AID A WOMAN

Through the display of real nerve and by presence of mind, Joseph R. Moser saved Mrs. John Ganse of Perryton from serious if not fatal injury Wednesday about 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Ganse, a widow, started from her home with several large cans of cream for delivery in Newark. Several miles east of Newark she stopped to let the horses rest and removing the bridle permitted the animal to eat grass while still hitched to the buggy. The horse took fright and ran along the road. Mrs. Ganse was unable to control the animal which after running two or three miles was traveling at high speed in the vicinity of Warren S. Weant's home. Mr. Moser, driving a fine horse with a colt by its side approached from the opposite direction and taking in the situation at a glance steered his horse straight towards the fast approaching runaway.

Many a man would have turned to the side and let the runaway pass but Mr. Moser without thought of his own safety or injury to his own horse was determined to stop the runaway. In the crash all three horses fell but fortunately little damage was done and both Mrs. Ganse and Mr. Moser escaped unhurt. Mrs. Ganse was profuse in her thanks to Mr. Moser for his timely assistance.

A suit in mandamus to compel road supervisors to open a road established along the Franconia-Madison township line, was begun in common pleas court Wednesday by the filing of a petition by County Prosecutor J. Howard Jones.

J. issued formal instructions to road superintendents of the district to open the highway to a width of forty feet. This, the petition alleges, the township trustees have failed to observe.

County commissioners are plaintiffs in the action and Steve Vermilion, Everet D. Everts and Mac Mossman, as trustees of Newark township, are made defendants.

to Newark for grappling hooks with which to drag the stream. The Bazler & Bradley ambulance crew was asked to take the hooks to the scene.

A few minutes work with the hooks located the body and Alva Drumm dove into the water and soon appeared on the surface with the lad in his arms. Willing hands assisted in getting the body to shore, one man wading into the water up to his waist.

The dead boy was placed in the ambulance and taken to the Myers home where the parents awaited the news of the progress of the search. The family ordered the body prepared for burial and it was brought to the Bazler & Bradley morgue in Newark. Early Wednesday morning it was taken to the Hanover home where the funeral services will be held.

Young Myers was the only son of

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Myers. He was born near Hanover and has lived most of his life there. Besides the parents he is survived by one sister Miss Ada Myers, age 16. Clarence and Harry Cordray of Newark are uncles of the deceased lad.

He was a boy who was universally liked, his habits were exemplary and his untimely death has caused many expressions of regret. His parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Brushy Fork church. Interment will be made in the cemetery at that church.

LICENSE REFUSED; FORGOT ADDRESS OF PROSPECTIVE BRIDE

He "just dropped in" to get a marriage license from the clerk in probate court, Wednesday, but because the bride-in-prospect wasn't alone and he didn't know where she lived, the stranger departed without as much as asking his name and address.

He did, however, offer the information that he had wooed the young woman by mail, and because of inability to express himself personally he tried parcel post. It seems all had been satisfactorily arranged, he had proposed and she had accepted, but being ill versed in the rules governing marriage permits, he was compelled to depart in search of the home address of the woman of his choice. He hasn't returned yet.

Dr. Jenkins and Miss Phillips were exploring the Luray Caverns when they decided to marry. A minister was summoned and with the trickling waters as the wedding music the ceremony was performed.

ON WATER WAGON FOR LIFE

The Splendid Philosophy of a Former Hard Drinker Who Was Neal-Cured Fifteen Months Ago.

Fifteen months ago a splendid business man of Clyde left the Cleveland Neal Institute, voicing his appreciation of the Neal Treatment, which had taken from him all the old desire which made him a slave to liquor.

"I used to think I was a good fellow," is the way this Ohioan wrote to Dr. A. J. McSamara, "but now I see what a fool I was. I have 'woken up' and taken a tumble to myself. Not a drop of liquor has passed my lips since I left the Neal Institute over 15 months ago. Never again the old way for me! I'm on the water wagon for life. Any time I get the chance I talk Neal Treatment, because I wish to make others see it as I do. I often think of you and your competent assistants and how pleasant you all made my stay in your institution."

The same splendid treatment is accorded patients at the Columbus Neal Institute, where Dr. George R. Bissell is in charge.

Victims of the drink habit are suffering from alcoholic poison. It is this poison which causes the craving—that feeling which the world calls liquor appetite. The Neal Treatment will, in three days, knock out the poison and change the craving into disgust for everything alcoholic.

The Neal Treatment is a physician's harmless vegetable remedy, which is taken internally, with no dangerous hypodermic injections.

There is no publicity. Names are never revealed. Your own investigation is not only invited, but urged. Call in person or address for booklet.

ORGANIZER FOR REINDEER WILL OPEN CAMPAIGN

Former Newspaper Man to Establish Office For Big Lodge Here—Officers Prominent.

Mr. Earl B. Huffman, of Canton, state organizer of Ohio for the Order of Reindeer, is in Newark to establish what is believed may be one of the strongest lodges in the state. Mr. Huffman is a former Columbus newspaper man with a considerable acquaintance here.

The Order of Reindeer is one of the largest and most rapidly growing of the comparatively new fraternal and beneficial organizations. Originally a local lodge formed in Kentucky, the order has rapidly spread throughout the Central and Eastern states. Ohio is now being thoroughly organized by a crew of men under direction of the supreme organizer, Hon. John C. Harmon, former newspaper editor, and an educator of no little renown.

Mr. Huffman was former editor of the News-Democrat, now the Daily News of Canton, and in that capacity became widely known throughout the state. The organization which has chosen him as supreme organizer is said to largely reflect the character of the influential men at its head. Stephen C. Miller, a prominent Akron lawyer, is supreme president of the order.

Mr. Huffman has established personal headquarters here and expects to open a downtown office within a few days. He declares he has already been assured a membership here that will compare favorably with that of 1500 in Canton, 1100 in Akron, 900 in Cambridge, and corresponding memberships in other Ohio cities.

SCHOLARS ASK TO MARCH IN THE SAFE AND SANE PAGEANT

Washington, June 18.—More than four thousand school children have asked voluntarily to be allowed to march in the "safe and sane" pageant July 4. It was announced by the civic committee having the arrangements in charge. The request of the children is taken by the committee as a highly encouraging sign that the children of the country are beginning to realize the advantages of observing Independence Day without dangerous indulgence in fire crackers, toy pistols and toy gunn.

Suffered Twenty One Years-- Finally Found Relief

Having suffered for twenty-one years, with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. The physicians called it "Mother's Pain" and injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new woman. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours,

MRS. JOSEPH CONSTANCE, Avoyelles Par., Marksville, La.

Personally appeared before me, this 15th day of July, 1911, Mrs. Joseph Constance, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

Wm. Morrow, Notary Public.

THIRD ANNUAL PICNIC OF THE L. AND K. OF M.

At Olentangy park in Columbus, June 25, the Ladies and Knights of the L. and K. of M. will hold their third annual Central Ohio Union Basket picnic. This great gala day of 1913 is an attraction that is one of the most talked of festivities of the summer season and is looked forward to by thousands. Aerobically, division efficiency drills, athletic competitions, drills by the L. O. T. M. guards, military maneuvers, popularity contests and attendance prizes will be the features.

The plans for this year's outing are bigger and better than ever and will be supremely a family outing, and all are urged to attend, bringing their friends and children. Great out-door attractions are provided and the contests that have been announced will positively take place.

Athletic and other contests have been arranged for the juvenile entertainment, prizes being given to the winners of the contests. Boy's potato races, a boy's sack race, boy's "three-legged" race, girls' egg races, girls' needle races and girls' running races will precede the public program which is at 2:30 p. m. The main feature of which will be a public wedding for which a bounteous reward has been donated. Large delegations will be present from all over the state.

BOYER'S BIG BASS.

Fred C. Boyer, the popular Second street barber, is spending a couple of weeks at one of the James cottages, at Lucke Lake. That is, Fred intended to spend a couple of weeks, but after what happened last night, he says he is going to stay there forever. Fred hadn't caught a fish for so long, he had become discouraged, but last night he landed what is claimed to be the largest bass ever pulled out of the lake. The fish was weighed on Rod. Rosebrough's bay scales, which registered exactly 11 1/2 pounds. Fred wanted to have the fish mounted as an enduring monument to his piscatorial skill, but finally consented to have it served at a big dinner to a number of his friends today.

A thousand years ago today was born Augfeldt Keistenmoehen, who put the burg in Wurtzburger. Immortal as his achievement made him, the citizens of this town feel even more grateful to Terence McHoolihoo, who put Wurtzburger in the burg.

WHO IS RIGHT? WHO SHOULD PAY THIS LITTLE SUM?

On April 3 a stranger claiming to be a Dayton flood sufferer entered the Advocate office and related a tale of woe, ending with an appeal for help in getting to Wheeling where he claimed to have relatives.

The man had had a drink or two but he said he had taken a little whiskey to ward off a cold. Instead of giving him the cash he was handed a check for the exact amount of the fare to Wheeling, and the check was made payable to Frank C. Bartholomew, B. & O. agent. Then the fellow was invited out to dinner and he was profuse in expressing appreciation for the assistance rendered. Mr. Bartholomew was advised by phone of the transaction and was asked to give the bearer of the check a ticket to Wheeling. It now develops that the man didn't buy a ticket with the check but visited a south side saloon where the bartender, touched by his appeal, accepted the check and gave him some liquor.

The bank of course refused to pay the check without Mr. Bartholomew's signature, and the B. and O. agent naturally declined to indorse the check. The saloon man today presented the check to the man who had issued it and the latter declined to honor the check.

The alleged flood sufferer is gone and has no doubt forgotten the incident. The man who accepted the check and gave him some liquor, ose. The man who issued the check is sure he shouldn't pay it because he took every precaution against the very thing that happened. Who is right? Who should lose?

BELIEVE BOYS FIRED THE SHED WHILE AT PLAY

A fire which is believed to have been started by boys with matches, destroyed a shed and damaged a barn in the rear of Patrick Rogers' grocery store, 422 Indiana street on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. When the fire was discovered, the flames were leaping up from the roof of a small structure immediately south of the barn. Two lads were seen coming from the shed a few minutes before. According to the statements of several people, one of the boys was heard to say, "Let's go over to the furniture factory and start a fire."

A telephone message to the fire department brought the East Newark company and the ladder truck from headquarters. It required a half hour's work to extinguish the flames. Fire Chief Bausch made an investigation as to the cause of the blaze and located the two lads who were said to have left the shed before its discovery.

They denied any connection with the fire's origin. A careful investigation was made in the vicinity of the furniture factory but no indication of any fire was found.

The shed where the fire originated was completely destroyed, another to the south was badly damaged and about one-third of the large barn was burned away. The loss will amount to several hundred dollars.

NO FIRE WORKS ON THE FOURTH

Despite the fact that a city ordinance passed four or five years ago has been rigidly enforced each Fourth of July, inquiries are being made every day at the mayor's office if fire works will be allowed on the nation's birthday anniversary.

Mayor Swartz announced Wednesday morning that there would be no deviation from the rule which has been followed in the past five years.

The city ordinance prohibits every form of explosive used as a pyrotechnic display or noise maker. The only exception made to this is when the city council adopts a resolution extending permission for displays made in celebration of some special occasion. Even in this case, the fireworks must be discharged under the supervision of the safety director.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN SHOOT WOMAN AND COMMITS SUICIDE

A posse formed and the would-be assassin was found in a wheat field. Rather than be taken by the enraged farmers, armed with shot guns, rifles and revolvers, the man shot himself through the head. Before his death he shot a deputy. Mrs. Erke, who is 50 years old, is in a serious condition.

OPERATION MAY MAKE GOOD BOY OF YOUNGSTERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Philadelphia, June 18.—An operation which the surgeons declare will make a good boy of Claire Jamison, was performed yesterday at the Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital when a bone about two inches long and one inch wide was removed from the base of the skull. Claire was a good little boy when he first went to school. The second year he was not quite so good and since he has been a terror to teachers and parents. The operation disclosed the fact that a bone pressing on the brain was probably the cause of change in his deportment.

JOSEPH R. MOSER RISKS SAFETY TO AID A WOMAN

Through the display of real nerve and by presence of mind, Joseph R. Moser saved Mrs. John Ganse of Perryton from serious if not fatal injury Wednesday about 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Ganse, a widow, started from her home with several large cans of cream for delivery in Newark. Several miles east of Newark she stopped to let the horses rest and removing the bridle permitted the animal to eat grass while still hitched to the buggy. The horse took fright and ran along the road. Mrs. Ganse was unable to control the animal which after running two or three miles was traveling at high speed in the vicinity of Warren S. Welant's home. Mr. Moser, driving a fine horse with a colt by its side approached from the opposite direction and taking in the situation at a glance steered his horse straight towards the fast approaching runaway.

Many a man would have turned to the side and let the runaway pass but Mr. Moser without thought of his own safety or injury to his own horse was determined to stop the runaway. In the crash all three horses fell but fortunately little damage was done and both Mrs. Ganse and Mr. Moser escaped unhurt. Mrs. Ganse was profuse in her thanks to Mr. Moser for his timely assistance.

A suit in mandamus to compel road superintendents to open a road established along the Franklin-Madison township line, was begun in common pleas court Wednesday by the filing of a petition by County Prosecutor J. Howard Jones.

Wolfe and others, authorized establishment of the road and that shortly thereafter County Auditor Wiley issued formal instructions to road superintendents of the district to open the highway to a width of forty feet. This, the petition alleges, the township trustees have failed to observe.

County commissioners are plaintiffs in the action and Steve Vermillion, Everett D. Everts and Mac Mossman, as trustees of Newark township, are made defendants.

to Newark for grappling hooks with which to drag the stream. The Bazler & Bradley ambulance crew was asked to take the hooks to the scene.

A few minutes work with the hooks located the body and Alva Drumm lived into the water and soon appeared on the surface with the lad in his arms. Willing hands assisted in getting the body to shore, one man wading into the water up to his waist.

The dead boy was placed in the ambulance and taken to the Myers home where the parents awaited the news of the progress of the search. The family ordered the body prepared for burial and it was brought to the Bazler & Bradley morgue in Newark. Early Wednesday morning it was taken to the Hanover home where the funeral services will be held.

Young Myers was the only son of

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Myers. He was born near Hanover and has lived most of his life there. Besides the parents he is survived by one sister Miss Ada Myers, age 16. Clarence and Harry Cordray of Newark are uncles of the deceased lad.

He was a boy who was universally liked, his habits were exemplary and his untimely death has caused many expressions of regret. His parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Brushy Fork church. Interment will be made in the cemetery at that church.

High Tariff and the Lobby.

Regarding the tariff lobby, now given much notoriety, every intelligent American citizen knows or should know that the Republican high tariff policy is responsible for its creation. The lobby is an inevitable sequence of the special privileged high protective system.

Avowedly the Republicans have for half a century been levying duties in the interest of certain industries and localities. The public interests have been served only incidentally. The revenue has been a by-product of the system of giving every manufacturer approximately the amount of "protection" from foreign competition which he thought desirable, or perhaps convinced himself was necessary.

Republican Ways and Means Committees have openly invited the tariff beneficiaries to name their duties. The iron schedule has been submitted to Pittsburg for approval. Fall River, Mass., was invited to write the cotton schedule, and any "Schedule K" has been accepted upon which the Boston wool market manipulators and the woolen manufacturers agreed.

It has been frankly professed that this legislation was to benefit specified industries and persons. The nation was taught year after year that the duty of Congress was to legislate for private interest. And if any man did not get the attention he desired from the Ways and Means Committee he very naturally went to Washington, in person or by his lobbyist, and applied all the means of persuasion in his power to Senators and Representatives in the lobbies, at the hotels and wherever he could.

Every Republican tariff bill was itself the product of openly invited lobbying, and that this should be supplemented by a great amount of secret and uninvited lobbying was the most natural thing in the world.

The indirect and invisible, but very real, taxation imposed by the High Protective system is not its greatest evil. It has done more harm to the morals of the robbed community than it has to its pockets, and it has completely perverted the general conception of the functions of Congress and the relation of national to personal interests.

Of course not all the lobbying is related to the tariff, but High Protection has established lobbying as a legitimate feature of Congressional government.

All the lobby probes that can be instituted will only emphasize facts that have long been known and are now becoming odious.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.
Evening star: Mercury. Morning stars: Venus, Saturn, Mars, Jupiter. The red star Antares of constellation Scorpio seen newly risen above the northeastern horizon after dark.

According to the correspondent of the New York Sun, Germany is threatened with a great financial panic, largely because the new military tax has driven out of the country a large amount of money that is most urgently needed there. Building operations in Berlin have been brought to a sudden stop; there have been many foreclosures, and the prices of stocks have dropped in an alarming fashion. It was a reflection of this German depression, coupled with some local factors of our own, such as the Supreme Court's decision in the Minnesota rate cases, that plunged Wall Street into such funeral gloom early last week. If the mere levying of a new tax can have such disastrous consequences one may well wonder what would follow the declaration of war between two first class European Powers. So widespread and tremendous would be the financial crash that the mere knowledge of this fact keeps the really responsible statesmen ever working for peace and so makes such a war more and more unlikely.

REGULATE THE SPEED.

Another frightful motorcycle accident occurred east of Newark Tuesday evening, following a similar accident of a few days ago. Serious injuries resulted in both cases.

Every few days accidents due to fast driving or carelessness are occurring and people who travel the country roads are complaining about the reckless action of the motorcycleists.

Many farmers are refusing to let their wives and daughters drive along the new highways for fear of accidents due to fast driving by cyclists and automobilists.

It is high time to enforce the speed regulation and to make a few arrests not only for the safety of those who drive these machines at high speed but for the safety of others who use the highways. Let us have a more sane use of these high speed machines and fewer accidents will happen.

Information comes from Washington that members of the conciliation committee of progressive Republicans, who recently made demands upon the Republican national committee for a national convention this year, have decided, as the result of meetings there, to oppose any action by the national committee to effect proposed reforms without a party convention.

Senator Cummins, former Governor Hadley of Missouri, Senators Jones and Crawford and Representatives Anderson of Minnesota, Crampton of Michigan and Rogers of Massachusetts participated in the conferences, which will be renewed later. Questions of reducing Southern representation in national conventions, recognizing delegates chosen in primaries, the unit rule and several others are to be considered, and the national committee is to determine as to the final authority whether a national convention shall be called to effect these reforms.

It begins to look as though we are going through the entire summer without getting that war with Japan.

ON SECOND THOUGHT

The man who can resist the temptation to shoot often is able to conceal indefinitely the true caliber of his weapon.

What passes for ability frequently is a capacity for keeping still.

Jah Swisegood says that when it comes to spending money he is ambidextrous.

There are a lot of fellows who could have whipped Jim Jeffries had his identity been concealed. Part of it is courage and determination, but a good deal of it is psychology.

As a rule a woman cries louder and leaks longer over the husband who has neglected her than she does over the one who put a lump in his shoulders slaving for her.

The brunettes seldom are imitated, but she is much more enduring and permanent than the blonde.

It is tolerably easy to offend the man who owes you money, but the fellow who is under no obligation to you will stand for a good deal.

If you keep reasonably busy the chances are that you will get into little mischief. This recipe is good for either sex.

The fiercest quarrels are those between people who were once great friends.

A good many marriages result from the fact that marriage is customary.

Boxwell Commencement.

The successful Boxwell graduates of Newark township will meet at the Township House on Thursday evening, June 19, at 7 o'clock for commencement exercises.

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

Jogging Along

The old world is wagging along to the bragging of those who have won in the battle of life; their vaunting and crowing we hear as we're going to do what we can in the hurry and strife! But Midas and Croesus have all gone to pieces and millions of winners have crumbled to dust; the old world, still wagging, has heard legends bragging, whose names are forgotten, whose riches are rust. The old world is tying along to the sighing of those who have troubles too heavy to bear; and loud sounds the wailing of sick souls and ailing, the chorus of sorrow, the dirge of despair. But millions are sleeping who one time were weeping and cursing their gods in the caverns of gloom; the old world, still flying, has heard so much sighing—has heard so much prating of dolor and doom! The old world is rumbling along to the grumbling of those who can tell how it might be improved; the kicking and carrying that way have been harping since first in the dawn of the ages it moved. But millions are planted who once galloped around on the surface with croakings and kicks; the old world, still rumbling, has seen them go tumbling, has heard the small splashes they made in the Styx.

Wisdom from Washington

Washington, June 18.—[Special.]—Railroad and corporation legislation has been greatly complicated by recent supreme court decisions, especially for the Democratic majority. The decisions give more power to the states, and state rights have always been a Democratic tenet. To legislate to take the power from the states and lodge it with the federal government is scarcely to be expected in a Democratic congress. And yet it is asserted that governmental control is about the only practical and comprehensive method of regulating common carriers.

Besides the tariff, which has caused trouble, and the currency, which has yet to make more trouble, there are the corporation and railroad problems, which really make the great victory of 1912 almost as bad as defeat. Added to these is the distribution of patronage, and, judging from what every Democrat who has anything to do with that says, it appears that it proves the most annoying trouble of all. Power has its responsibilities and cares and troubles as the Democrats well know.

May Amend the Law.
After a long period the supreme court decided the Barnhart-Bourne law, relating to newspapers and periodicals, constitutional. The law was designed to make publishers give publicity as to the ownership and editorial control of their papers. Now that it has been declared constitutional it is expected that it will be amended in some particulars so as to make it effective, but less irksome to the publishers.

Deadlocks on Minor Matters.
Not since the last Democratic tariff bill was passed has there been a deadlock between the senate and house on anything of great importance. There have been deadlocks such as have existed for several weeks in this congress, but they have been about trivial matters or differences over amounts in appropriation bills. The most recent deadlock was over reducing the number of members of the board of soldiers' homes, who serve only for expenses and daily pay when at work, which is not often.

Talking For Morality.
A feature of the present administration is that several cabinet officers talk morality when occasion offers. Secretary Bryan takes the lead and speaks for the moral uplift in all directions whenever the occasion will permit. Secretary Daniels is another who talks along the same line. The navy secretary has frequent opportunities to talk to the officers and men of the navy, and he never fails to impress upon them the better results that accrue from leading temperate and clean lives.

Long Look Ahead.
Congressman Witherspoon of Mississippi sought an opportunity to visit his home in the sunny south recently, saying that he took the present period of house vacation because he did not expect to get another opportunity to leave Washington until the Christmas holidays. He fears there will be a continuous session of congress all summer and through the fall.

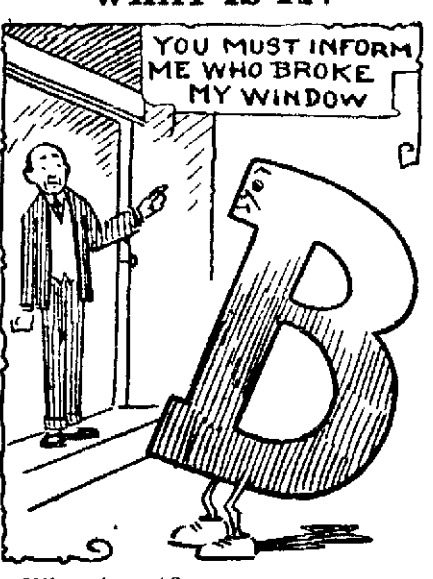

Other members are as apprehensive of a continuous session, more particularly if currency legislation is to be considered. So far as possible, all other legislation has been discouraged by the Democratic leaders, although the committees have been taking up several bills referred to them.

An Opinion by Williams.
The Republicans of the senate were trying to make something of an ap-

Gives Quickest and Surest Cure For All Sore Feet

The following is absolutely the surest and quickest cure known to science for all foot ailments: "Dissolve two table-spoonsful of Calocide compound in a basin of warm water. Soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently rubbing the sore parts. The effect is really wonderful. All soreness goes instantly; the feet feel so good you could sing for joy. Corns and callouses can be peeled right off. It gives immediate relief for sore bunions, twenty-five cent box of Calocide is said to be sufficient to cure the worst feet. It works through the pores and removes the cause of the trouble. Don't waste time on uncertain remedies. Any druggist has Calocide compound in stock, or he can get it in a few hours from his wholesale house. It is not a patent medicine but is a physical preparation.

pointment of an editor in Ohio, where it was shown the member of congress making the appointment wanted the editor to run a "straight Democratic paper."

John Sharp Williams took a hand in the discussion. "This resolution," he said, "is pure political play of the peanut variety. Its hypocrisy is sublime, coming from the Republican party, which for fifty-three years has been rewarding past, present and hoped for political service with post-offices."

"How Did You Like It?"
Senator Page of Vermont had to answer many questions by his colleagues after it became known that he had taken a trip in a naval ship at Annapolis. "How did you like it?" and "What were your sensations?" were the most frequent questions put to him. Senator Page enjoyed the trip.

Surface For Talbot.
Congressman Talbot was in Annapolis at the time Senator Page made his flight and was told that he could take the ride if he so desired. "No," said the Maryland man. "I guess not. I have been invited to go down in a submarine and I have been invited to go up in an airship. But I don't want to go up or down. The plain surface is good enough for me."

WOMEN BEAT MEN AT FINDING BARGAINS

By HOLLAND.

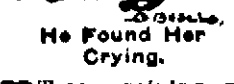

WOMEN spend more money than men, and they spend it wiser. They not only buy most of the articles used in the home, but they also buy for their children and often for their men folks.

Women also read the advertisements more than men do. This makes them better and safer buyers than men. They have equipped themselves with the knowledge that makes them effective.

They know the best stores, the best merchandise, the best values. By reading the advertisements women are enabled to shop more economically, to make the money go farther.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — When Araminta Was Left Out In the Rain.

He Found Her Crying.
It was raining; not a real hard rain, but one of the gentle patter, patter rains that are nice to go to sleep by, especially if you sleep beside a porch with a tin roof, as Jack and Evelyn did.
The children sighed contentedly. "It's lots of fun to go out in the rain if you have a good umbrella," Jack said.
"So it is," said daddy, "but Araminta Angelina hadn't any umbrella. She was stretched out under the beech tree, with her blue eyes staring at the sky. She lay just in the spot that her mistress, little Miss Bessie, had left her.
"Up in the sky the clouds were gathering, and before the sun set there was a shower. At first Araminta did not feel it, for the thick leaves of the beech tree kept off the water. By and by the water trickled down, and then Araminta began to cry.
"Dear me; what can that be? Mrs. Squirrel said to her husband. They had a nice home up in the beech tree.
"I'll just run down and see," Mr. Squirrel offered, while Mrs. Squirrel poked her head out of the door to watch him. Right at the foot of the tree he found Araminta crying.
"Oh, ah," she was sobbing; "it's my new silk frock, and it won't wash!"
"Whatever is the matter? Mr. Squirrel demanded.
"Oh, I'm Miss Bessie's French doll, and—boohoo!—she's forgotten me! Now I shall get my dress wet with the rain!" Araminta cried.
"Mr. Greenback, the frog, hopped up and listened to her. Mr. Mole poked his head up out of his cellar, and Grandfather Woodpecker, who lived in the hole in the chestnut tree across from the beech, scowled out of his door.
"Just then Mrs. Greenback came hopping up. When she heard what was the matter she whispered something to her husband, and croaking, "Just the thing!" he hopped off to obey her order. Just then a cheery bowwow was heard across the lawn. "Oh," Araminta exclaimed, "it's dear good Fido coming to save me!"
"When Mr. Squirrel heard that he dashed up the tree, Mr. Mole ducked into his cellar, and Mrs. Greenback, with one hop, was hidden among the grass. "Bowwow!" barked Fido joyously as he reached the tree. Then he picked Araminta Angelina up in his mouth. "Be careful now or you will rumple my dress," she ordered. And, carrying her very tenderly, he started for the house from which his mistress had sent him to fetch the doll when she remembered about having left her under the tree.
"So when Mr. Greenback returned to the beech tree with a big water lily leaf to hold over Araminta Angelina for an umbrella there was no one there, and he hopped home, wondering what had happened."

In Society

One of the most delightful social events of the early summer was the dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. David G. Woolard at their pretty Buckeye Lake cottage Sunday. Conversation, music, etc., were the diversions which, with a well appointed dinner, made it an occasion so happy that the memories of all present will often revert to it.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Woolard were: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Daughterman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McClish and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hamm and two sons and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donaway and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Radabach, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Elise and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jud Grove of Walnut township, Fairfield county, O., Mr. Mac Mossman and daughter Helen of Newark, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Woolard and daughter, Miss Bertha, and Mr. and Mrs. James Leach of Licking township, this county.

Those attending the picnic Thursday at Stadden's bridge given by the Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity church should take the 11:05 eastbound car.

The members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club were delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Nina Webb in the Granville road. The game concluded with the trophy awards being made to Mrs. Charles Kellenberger and Mrs. Fred Mosteller, the latter receiving the complimentary guest souvenir.

The guests of the club were Mrs. Fred Mosteller, Mrs. Edward Kibler, jr., Mrs. A. R. Pitzer, and Mrs. Robbins Hunter.

The Country Club held "open house" on Tuesday evening for the members and their friends and the evening was given over to bridge whist.

On Monday afternoon the Sesame club had a farewell picnic for Mrs. Clyde Doughty at the home of her mother, Mrs. O. B. Young in the Granville road. Mrs. Doughty leaves on Thursday for her future home in Tacoma, Washington. The members of the club took baskets with plenty to eat in them and also showered Mrs. Doughty with some beautiful handkerchiefs. Little Margaret Doughty also received some useful presents. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Kelley the third Friday in July.

Mrs. James Keagy of Western avenue entertained at dinner Tuesday Mrs. Adelaide Stevens, Mrs. Bart Ewers, Mrs. Frank Reel and daughter Mary, and Mrs. Almeda Wherle of Bogota, N. J.

The Mystic club enjoyed Mrs. Fred Schneider as hostess on Friday afternoon. Embroidering and social pastimes were indulged in by the members and one guest, Mrs. Huff. At a late hour a dainty luncheon was served on the lawn. The next regular meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. A. Scanlon on North Madison avenue.

A delightful event was the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Chism at their home on Hancock street, Sunday, June 15th. The day was beautiful and much the same. Mrs. Chism said, as their wedding day fifty years ago. About thirty-five of their relatives and friends were present and after some pleasant hours of social chat, all were ushered out upon the lawn where a long table was spread under the trees and laden with all the good things the people of old time hospitality, such as the Chisms are, know how to prepare. The center of the table was graced with a beautiful cake set with fifty golden-colored candles. Also a silver fern dish the gift of a Mrs. Murphy of Columbus who was unable to be present. All did ample justice to the meal, and at its close Mr. and Mrs. Chism were presented with twenty-five dollars in gold, besides other beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Chism have reared a large family and all of the children with their families were present, except one son, who died two years ago.

Immediately after dinner a picture

Birthday Calendar

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Attention to your health is of prime importance to you at this time, and quarrels should be avoided. Some anxiety hangs over you that with good judgment you will be able to clear away.

Those born today will be clever, but of restless, dissatisfied dispositions and will continually seek gay companions. Resources of thought and reflection should be developed in them lest they spend their lives without realizing their own abilities.

Gray Hair Makes You Look Old--Use a Little Sage Tea

Says Sage and Sulphur Darkens Hair Beautifully and Ends Dandruff.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair, says a well-known local pharmacist. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and even today this simple preparation has no equal. Millions of women and men too, who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive use only Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Nowadays we are not bothered with the task of gathering the sage leaves and the mussy mixing at home. Simply ask at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of the ready to use preparation, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Customers like this best because it darkens so naturally; so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it contains ingredients which take off dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. No, it isn't a dye or even like it. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it is restored to its natural color.

What delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that besides beautifully darkening the hair they say it brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance. Hall's Drug Store, 19 North Side Square, agent.

GOOD ROADS

Federation Held Second Meeting on Tuesday Evening—Must Get Busy to Secure Highway For Newark.

Another meeting of the Ohio Good Roads Federation was held Tuesday night and the organization is now firmly on its feet.

It is an asserted fact that the United States government will build three trans-continental wagon roads from ocean to ocean, and it is generally conceded that one will be established along the old National Pike which lies seven miles south of the city. These roads are under government supervision. The question now before the people of Newark is whether they are going to have this national thoroughfare seven miles south of the city or have it come through Newark.

If they do not get busy this road will be built along the old National Pike. But if the proper effort is made there is good reason to believe that the conditions are such that it can be diverted through Newark. There are many reasons why from an economical standpoint this should be done. The distance from Zanesville to Columbus is 60 miles without a city along the entire distance, and the cost of construction, owing to railroad facilities, would be diminished by the road being built through Newark. This is the day of the automobile and the incipient motor traffic and such a highway would be equal to a trunk line in point of travel and transportation.

Many years ago the people of this city sat idly by and permitted a railroad to be built within two and one-half miles of Newark, and unless we wake up to the situation we will find a great national highway passing within seven miles of Newark instead of at our door. This matter will be settled in all probability in the next few days and if we want the road it is for us to get busy.

The committee soliciting members for the Good Roads Federation are H. L. Montgomery, E. M. Baugher, J. M. Reese, Fred Evans, A. A. Stasel, William Smith and J. R. Fitzgibbon. So far they are meeting with great success and practically all the citizens solicited are subscribing to the membership.

FOUGHT

left the train to ascertain the cause of the stop.

The engine and express car were cut off from the rest of the train at the point of revolvers. Conductor McWilliams on seeing the engine and express car pull out started to investigate.

A little farther down the tracks toward this city, he heard an explosion. He hastened to the home of a farmer and sent a warning into this city. The sheriff and Police Chief Underwood soon had a posse scouring the country.

A switch engine in charge of General Superintendent A. E. Cliff of Clinton Station left this city about 2 o'clock and on reaching Twentieth and Laurel streets ran onto the engine and express car of the passenger train. It was deserted and the safe which contained $25,000 appeared to have been looted.

The switch engine returned to this city and the passenger engine was sent back to Glen Arm for the train. Engineer Shell reported that following the battle between the robbers and posse the bandits took possession of his locomotive and ran it themselves, making him sit quietly upon his box. One of the men performed the duties of fireman, while the other acted as engineer.

The bandit handled the locomotive using the reverse lever throttle air brakes in the same manner as any engineer would have done. Farmer's telephone played an important part in quickly notifying the authorities of the holdup. Reports of the explosions of dynamite used repeatedly upon the safe and in the express car awakened the farmers for a distance of several miles.

Fireman Peter S. Miller of Chicago says he has no idea when or where the bandits boarded the train. The first he knew of their presence was when one of the masked robbers slid over the tender of the engine with a revolver in each hand and covering the engineer and fireman said:

"Stop here." The engineer obeyed the command.

The heavier-set of the two bandits uncoupled the express car and gave the command to pull ahead. After going about a mile, another order was given to stop.

Miller is of the opinion that dynamite was applied to the safe half a dozen times before the sheriff's posse arrived at the scene and engaged the bandits in a pitched battle.

The agent of the Wells Fargo and company here said the local safe which was blown open contained about $500 and that this amount would cover the loss.

"I walked four miles and a half down the track," said the engineer, "and I then ran my engine and the baggage car back to the train." "All there was to it, was that they covered us with guns before we could make any fight."

"One man fired the safe, while the other covered us."

"The bandits, two in number, were dressed in big dusters with masks over their faces."

"They wore slouch hats, were both good sized men and seemed to have absolutely no fear of death."

Thomas I. Story of Harrisburg, a passenger on the train said:

"I stuck my head out of the car window and a bullet grazed my nose. That was enough for me."

Donald Wilson, St. Louis, said he put his head out of the chair car window when the train first stopped.

"The bullets were flying along the side of the train" said he. "I understood at once that we were being instructed to "keep your head inside." We all did so.

The holdup was similar to the robbery of the Alton "Hummer" on the Chicago and Alton, three miles south of Springfield last December. Two men held up the "Hummer" after climbing over the tender, covering the engineer and fireman with their revolvers and forcing the engineer to uncouple the express car and run it a few miles down the track.

As in this morning's holdup, dynamite was used in the attempt to blow the safe.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, June 18.—The robbers who held up the Illinois Central train at Glenarm, Ill., obtained $500 from a small safe in the express car. They failed to get several thousand in the second and larger safe. This statement was made upon the arrival of the train here today by officials of the railroad. A reward of $1,000 was offered for capture of the robbers.
